

CÔTES DU COEUR Society

The American Heart Association
8200 Brookriver Drive, N-100
Dallas, TX 75247

American Heart
Association
Learn and Live...

CÔTES DU COEUR 2009-2010 Society Membership Information & Season Highlights

The Côtes du Coeur Society is a social group dedicated to exploring fine wines and delicious food prepared by Dallas' finest chefs in beautiful homes, private venues and leading restaurants. This group offers members a fun and interactive way of supporting the American Heart Association throughout the year by participating in monthly events centered around wine and food.

The Côtes du Coeur Society serves as a membership organization for the Côtes du Coeur International Fine Wine Auction and Celebrity Chef Dinner, the annual gala benefiting the Dallas Division of the American Heart Association. The 2010 Côtes du Coeur will be held on Saturday, April 10 at the Hilton Anatole. Côtes du Coeur Society Members pay a yearly membership fee and donate wine to the auction based on their membership level.

Benefits of Membership for this unique culinary and wine focused Society include:

- Wine tastings led by industry experts
- Wine dinners with visiting winemakers and culinary showcases with celebrated chefs
- Invitation to Côtes du Coeur parties throughout the year
- Reduced ticket price to Côtes du Coeur

Membership fee and donations to the auction support the American Heart Association Dallas Division, and are tax deductible.